

Table II.
Electoral Systems of Post-Communist States
1989 - 1996

B. Balkan and South-Eastern European States

Election Year	Chamber Structure	Chamber Names	Districts				Vote Method	Electoral Threshold
			Number	Type	Size	Total Seats
Albania
1991	Unicameral	People's Assembly	250	SM	1	250	Maj	N/A
1992		People's Assembly	100	SM	1	100	Maj	N/A
			1	NL	40	40	PR	4%
			Total Seats				140
1996		People's Assembly	115	SM	1	115	Maj	N/A
			1	NL	25	25	PR	4%
			Total Seats				140
Croatia
1992	Bicameral	House of Representatives
1993		House of Counties	21	MM	3	66	PR	5%
			Total Seats				66*
1995		House of Representatives	28	SM	1	28	Maj	N/A
			1	NL	80	80	PR	5%
			Total Seats				108*
Bulgaria
1990	Unicameral	Grand National Assembly	200	SM	1	200	Maj	N/A
			28	MM	4 to 12	200	PR	4%
			Total Seats				400
1991 & 1994		National Assembly	31	MM		240	PR	4%
Romania
1990	Bicameral	Chamber of Deputies	42	MM	4 to 39	396	PR	N/A
		Senate	42	MM	2 to 14	119	PR	N/A
1992		Chamber of Deputies	42	MM	4 to 29	341*	PR	3%
		Senate	42	MM	2 to 13	143	PR	3%
1996		Chamber of Deputies	42	MM	4 to 29	341*	PR	3%
		Senate	42	MM	2 to 13	143	PR	3%
Slovenia
1996	Unicameral	National Assembly	8	MM	11	88	PR	N/A

Legend

Districts: MM = Multi-Member, SM = Single Member, NL = National List
Vote Method: PR = Proportional Representation, Maj = Majority

Sources

Inter-Parliamentary Union, "PARLINE Database," at <http://www.ipu.org>
K. Jasiewicz, "Elections and Political Change," in White, Batt and Lewis, eds., Developments in East European Politics (1993)
J. McGregor. 1994. "The Presidency in East Central Europe," RFE/RL Research Report 3:2 (January)
Parliament of the Republic of Croatia, at <http://www.sabor.hr>
Parliament of the Republic of Romania, at <http://dias.vsat.ro>
Parliament of the Republic of Slovenija, at <http://www.sigov.si>

Notes

* = Additional reserved seats