UNCG, in partnership with the City of Greensboro and other community organizations, presents War & Peace Imagined, an inter-disciplinary event series commemorating the 100th anniversary of the United States’ entry into World War I. Over the course of the 2016-2017 academic year, lectures, concerts, performances, and films will contemplate the impact of war and the promise of peace through the lens of the arts & sciences.